

1 RESOLUTION on Support for the First Amendment Right to Boycott

2
3 WHEREAS, the ELCA, in its policy document “Boycott Policies and Procedures” defined
4 boycott as “A collective effort to abstain from the purchase or use of products or services 5 provided by a targeted firm, government or other agency,”¹ and

6
7 WHEREAS, the ELCA, in “Boycott Policies and Procedures” further affirms that the “purpose 8 of a boycott is to persuade the targeted entity to cease certain practices judged to be unjust and/or 9 to perform certain practices deemed to be just”², and

10
11 WHEREAS, boycotts, as a nonviolent political action to oppose injustice have an honorable 12 history from Americans’ pre-Revolutionary boycott of tea to the boycott of South Africa during 13 apartheid, and

14
15 WHEREAS, historically, Lutherans have been involved in social movements that used boycotts
16 as a means of witness and reform in a wide range of areas, including the consumption of liquor
17 and tobacco, business establishments open on Sunday, objectionable entertainment, goods 18 produced with child or slave labor, gambling, and racial discrimination³, and

19
20 WHEREAS, Martin Luther himself called for a boycott of the Fuggers, a merchant banking 21 company,⁴ and

22
23 WHEREAS, Boycott, Divest, Sanctions [BDS] does not call for the end of Israel but rather seeks 24 for Israel to comply with international law and respect human rights, and

25
26 WHEREAS, over 100 measures have been introduced in state and local legislatures and in the 27 U.S. Congress to punish BDS supporters, including those who merely refuse to pledge never to 28 boycott Israel.⁵ and

29
30 WHEREAS, whatever one’s stance on specific boycotts, in view of the ongoing assault on the 31 right to boycott, this resolution is rooted in defense of the First Amendment right to speak and to 32 act nonviolently for the sake of the common good in accordance with one’s convictions

33
34 THEREFORE, be it

35
36 RESOLVED, that the Chicago Metropolitan Synod Assembly calls on Bishop Curry to urge our 37 Illinois Governor and state legislature to oppose and overturn legislation penalizing or 38 criminalizing support for nonviolent boycotts, divestment and/or sanctions on behalf of 39 Palestinian human rights.
